INTEREST TO WOMEN

.................

REWARDED.

BY CHANNING POLLOCK.

warshall went to Red Bank acation almost entirely bek Ewing was there. To in the offices of the Ameri-Chair company she said elt the guiet of the place to es most needed. In point of ver, what she most needed or of the young bookkeeper dropped his pen a week bethe avowed intention of rus-

Red Bank. mary, sensible woman of was the exact age of Miss probably would not have sed with her much concerning yed with her much concerning greent. Ewing was just 28, gray matter" was not gray at maturity or over-exertion. exceedingly good-looking, extall and broad and debonair, wirtues had appealed at once is Marshall, whose eyes were of to grayness of mind and angs. Red Miss Marshall, too, in sort of fashion, his rebeen deepened considerthe discovery that she was of "double entry," and not res to double labor. His afefficiently adjustable to per-eng put quite out of the way Mar put quite out of the way upssessor met so fluffy and taperson as Nellie Carruth.

A Eming's gone with your girl Mis Marshall heard an idler materingly to another as she the steps of the Globe hotel.
The furnile a handlership.

insed, "Looks as if I was He Carruth?" inquired the to fumble a handkerchief

as not the only individual Miss Marshall learned im-upon the return of the pair, about the piaza, she disthe about the plaza, she dis-tem at the end of the street, the per hangling on the words empanion as no amount of execution of wisdom ever in hang on the words of wo-ving was great embarrassed, in he saw Miss Marshall, al-the tried to seem uninterested its presence and in his atten-te. Nue-frocked girl to whom blue-frocked girl to whom ated her.

e told herself later, obey-pulse that bade her justify to herself. He had made th her; at least, no verbal the knew that few men recthe validity of unspoken con-why should a fine, strong fel-less life was before him, be neutral-finted woman, who alized that her future was is her past stripped of its illu-if Frank Ewing wanted to & Carruth, it wasn't any of while presenting an front to that part of located at Red Bank, she isenly the next few days, the and her widowed mother a cottage near the river, twen walking, riding and the and her new admirer constantly. stated at Miss Marshall once t assured himself that she and was glad that he had mitted himself. Ewing was by's Dreadful Sufferog from Eczema.

MOTHER'S

ED BY CUTICURA.

Nis Skin la as White

Is a Snow Flake. thie rash bro e out on Charlittle face and spread to his tand back. I had never seen gaite like it before," writes is Rath of 821 '0th Ave., N. Y. The skin rose a little lumps, and matter came out. My baby's skin was not, and how he d 4 suffer. He wouldn't eat, and I night after night I walked the floor with him, weak as I was. Often I had to sto, because I felt faint and my bled with pain. But the worst all was to see my poor little ming with those nasty sores. was persuaded by a friend the street to try the Cuticura She gave me some Cuticura -I think the tox was about -and a piece of Cuticura Soap. ed the directions, bathing and putting that rice Olntment sores. Little by little, but so Charlie and I bo h got more y day and more reep by night.

Tes sort of dried up and went and now Charlie is cured com-hat fat little boy by the win-Charlie, and his ak n is as white ow fake, thanks to the Cuticura is. I think everyoody should bout the Soap and Ointment, it is going to help caher mothers bables, go ahea. and publish

1904 by Channing Pollock.) | not a bad sort of a man-he was just not a bad sort of a man—he was just a man.

This was the state of affairs when a fire at the Carruth cottage upset Red Bank and permitted to the book-keeper a display of courage which seemed to write "finis" to his romance. The blaze broke out at dead of night and gained such hendway in the front part of the dwelling that there appeared scant probability that the two inmates could be rescued. Red Bank's volunteer fire brigade propped its ladders against the veranda before the bedroom windows, but very wisely refused to mount them through the blast furnace of the blazing porch. Ewing went up one of them like a toy monkey on a stick and carried both women to places of safety.

Miss Marshall, who thought it risky to be among the spectators at a fire, did not witness this deed, but she heard of it, and her heart swelled with pride. She had known all along that Ewing was capable of just such heroism. Forgetting her previous reserve.

Ewing was capable of just such hero-

Ewing was capable of just such heroism. Forgetting her previous reserve, she hastened to congratulate him, bringing up, speechless and tearful, before the couch on which he lay nursing a bandaged burn on his cheek.

This burn, the result of contact with a falling brand, kept the bookkeeper wrapped in darkness and oil-silk for a fortnight. His right eye had been endangered and had to be treated carefully. Miss Marshall forfeited a considerable amount of salary and remained at Red Bank. She really was needed after Miss Carruth, to whom the fire soon became only an imperneeded after Miss Carruth, to whom the fire soon became only an imper-sonal occurrence which made good material for story-telling, found a rowboat shared with her earlier ad-mirer rather preferable to a stuffy room shared with her late suitor and the oder of iodoform. the odor of lodoform.

The injured man missed her greatly, and inquired of Miss Marshall concerning her. Miss Marshall replied that she supposed Miss Carruth much occupied with getting furniture for her new cottage.

new cottage?" exclaimed 'I may be interested in that Miss Marshall tried to change the brick!" the convalescent went on. 'Pretty as a picture, too. Don't you think she's pretty, Miss something better than pretty when she witnessed her first meeting with Ewing after the bandages had been taken from his face. The brand had penciled an indelible mark of scarlet from his forchead to his throat. Misa Carruth gave vent to an abbreviated scream when she saw it, and then, mastering herself, grasped the victim's hand firmly. "I didn't realize," she said, "how much you had done for me."

Manifestly, Miss Marshall had been unjust in considering her a mere doll. One evening seen after, however, when she was sitting at her window looking into the mist of her life, she was given reason to resurrect her first opinion. Ewing and Miss Carruth Were seated below, and Ewing was proposing marriage. The woman upstairs knew that she ought not to listen, but her breath was quivering in her throat, and she could not move away to save her soul.

"Don't!" Miss Carruth was urging when her voice first became audible. "Don't Frank! Please don't!" "But why?" he persisted. "I love

Until this moment I was suryou loved me." "I did!" cried the girl. "Oh, I did, ntil-, You mustn't ever ask me to marry you?"

"Why?" repeated Ewing. The repetition was determined. "I think I have earned the right to a reason."

"That is the reason!"
"What?" The word was spoken sharply, like a military command. Miss Carruth qualled.

"What—what happened when you earned the right? Oh, I know I'm horrid! I know I'll be ashamed all the rest of my life. But—your cheek! I couldn't bear to look at that scar."

couldn't bear to look at that scar."

"Oh" sald Ewing,

"If it hadn't been for me you wouldn't have been burned," Miss Carruth went on, sobbing almost hysterically. "I realize that I'm sorry; indeed, I'm scorry! Won't you say you forgive me?"

"Yes," said Ewing. "It's not your fault. I've just been a fool. I see it now. I'm going away tomorrow."

"And you won't think too harshly of "And you won't think too harshly of him push back his chair. 'I'll try not to think of you at all," he answered. "I'll try to remember a little woman who has never forgotten me, love was too fine for me to comprehend at first, but somehow I seem to understand it now.

Then two sounds broke the stillness of the night. Frank Ewing had gone into the hotel, slamming the door af-ter him, and Sallie Marshall, fainting Miss Marshall did.

She concluded that Miss Carruth was to the floor.

Mrs. Reid entertained informally at luncheon yesterday, covers being laid for House parties in the country will be he feature of next summer's social life The University club is preparing to give series of entertainments during the oming winter.

The first hop of the Wednesday Night lub will take place at Christensen's to-in local society,

Mrs. William Igleheart will give a recital of "The Kentucky Cardinal," by James Lane Allen, at the First Fresbyterian church Friday evening, October 21. Prof. Skelton will assist with violin num-

Mrs. W. W. Daley and son, Edward, have returned to Rawlins, Wyo, after a pleasant visit with her parents.

Many friends were at the depot yester-day to see travelers off for the East. No. 2 and the limited were both filled with Salt Lakers going to the fair.

Now that Mrs. Holmes has bought Oak-

HAPPENINGS ABROAD

BERLIN, Oct 11-Dr. Leo Vogel, a lawyer and secretary of the Swiss Lega-tion at Berlin, has been appointed Min-ister to the United States.

HALIPAX, N. S. Oct. 11—A report has reached here that the steamer Call, bound from Tracadle, N. B., for New London, P. E. I. has been sunk near New London and that the captain and crew of seventeen were lost.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Lord Milner has resigned the high commissionerality of South Africa on account of ill health.

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—The Pruesian Minis-ters of Public Works, the Interior and Commerce, have just rejected a petition for the erection of "akyscrapers" in Prussian cities.

REVEL. Russia, Oct. 11.—The Baltic fleet weighed anchor early this morning and sailed for Libau, one torpedo-boat destroyer remaining behind because of a broken rudder.

ST PETERSBURG, Oct. 11.—No representations have yet reached the Forcign office here from the United States relative to the American mails of the British steamer Calchas, captured by the Vladivostok squadron.

PONTE A PITRIE. Guadeloupe. Oct. II—A powder magazine at the fort on Cochons Island has exploded. One man was killed. Fortunately a chamber containing 2000 fifteen-pound shells did not explode.

WALMER CASTLE Oct. 11.—This morning's bulletin regarding Lady Curzon's condition is as follows: "Lady Curzon passed a fair night, but is not quite so well this morning."

ROME, Oct 11—M Emile Ollyler, the French advocate and politician, in the course of an interview, attributes most of the Catholic troubles in France to the bad idea of the papacy in 1880 of interfering in the domestic policy of the Republic.

RIALYSTOK, Russian Poland, Oct. II.—The Medical association has appealed to the Governor of Grodno against the action of the station master in insulting a Jew ductor ranned Epstein and refusing to allow his colleagues to use the waiting room while bidding him farewell on the occasion of his departure for the front.

wood, that end of the county will be quite a gathering place for society. The J. R. Walker farm, the S. S. Walker place, M. H. Walker's hundsome residence, the Judge and Hills homes are already very popular places for their owners and their fortunate friends.

Mrs. O. T. Carlson entertained at a beautifully arranged dinner party in honor of Mrs. L. J. Thurston Kinney's 78th birthday. The floral decorations were beautiful, especially the dining-room, which was done in red and white. Clusters of tinted autumn leaves and masses of flowers and clinging vines were effectively arranged, which were emblematical and very suggestive of her age. Many of Mrs. Kinney's old friends enjoyed the occasion. They were Mrs. Daft, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Huffaker, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Wells. Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Heath, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. Skewes and Miss Fleming.

The Strollers' club met Monday evening at the home of Harry H. Madsen. The following officers were elected: President at the nome of Harry H. Madsen. The following officers were elected: President, Delancy M. Wilson, vice-president, Frank Folland, treasurer, Henry Kondell; secretary, J. R. Whittemore: corresponding secretary, Tom Janney, board of supervisors. Thomas Nattress, Rex Wilson, L. Bassett. The club has issued 400 invitations for a dance to be given at the Ladies' Literary club, October 21.

"All right," said the Mill, "I understand you want to be ground just right or there will be trouble. I'll do my part and see that you are 'granulated,' not 'pulverized,' as you pass through me. I know that coffee ground too fine tastes bitter. Skip along and keep your date with Kettle."

Nothind foes with GOLDEN GATE COFFEE but satisfaction. No prizes—no coupons—no crockery. I and 2 lb. aroma-tight tins. Nover sold in bulk.

J. A. Folger @ Co. Established half a Century San Francisco

+8+6+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0

eChe Crustal Cafee 0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+0+

For Sale by Brubaker-Campbell Hardware Co., 27-29 W. 3rd South St.

Announcement.

It is with pleasure that we announce to the public that we have just completed arrangements with the esteemed house of Wm. Knabe & Co. to represent them in this section and to handle the Knabe plane in conjunction with our other lines. Our line of agencies is now, as it has always been, the FINEST that was ever handled under one roof, and the forty-four years of experience in the music business in the State has enabled us to fully understand the requirements of the music-loving public.

In addition to this instrument will be found here the renowned Steinway, the Steck, Mason & Hamlin, Kimball, Estey, Heller and many others. Prices and terms to suit

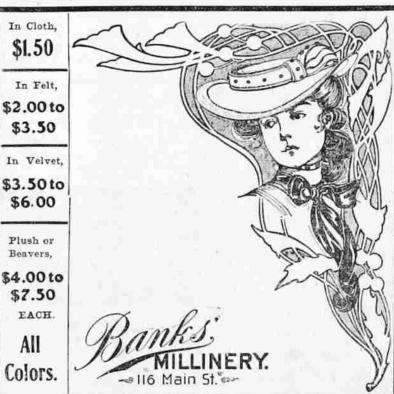

We earnestly invite the music-loving public to call and make a visit through our emporium of music. The handsomest and largest music house west of Chicago.

It will be a pleasure for us to escort you through our various departments.

Clayton Music Co.,

new Store, 109 South Main St.

JOSEPH J. DAYNES, JR., Manager.

A Hat Suitable for Grandma or Granddaughter. Mail Orders Solicited.

J. WILL GRAY & BRO.

"Chesterfield" ReadystosWear Clothes for Men

If the front of any Chesterfield suit breaks or gets out of shape in twelve months your money back or a new suit.

J. WILL GRAY & BRO. 153 MAIN STREET, EAST SIDE. UNDER ELECTRIC SIGN "GRAY'S"

WATCHWORK,

We manufacture everything in special jewelry designs, make over old jewelry or buy it for old gold. Keep in stock Opals, Rubies, Diamonds, Bapphires, Jewelry, Sliver Watches, Chains, Rings, Brooches, etc. Watch making.

259 SO. MAIN ST.

Drunkenness Cured.

A positive and permanent cure for drunkenness and the optim diseases. There is no publicity, ro sickness. Ladies treated as privately as at their own homes. The Keeley Institute, 334 W. Sa, Temple, Sait Lake City, Utah.

ESTABLISHED 1864 ONE PRICE TO ALL NEVER UNDERSOLD

Another Programme of Stupendous Value-Giving In restaurant keepers remarkable values for their money this week. This is the way the prices run, and the more you buy the more money you'll

DINNER NAPKINS-Every thread pure flax, bleached and sliver bleached, fast edges, 18-inch size, positively unmatchable $1.15 below $2.00 a dozen. On sale per dozen. 20-inch size, positively unmatchable below $2.25 a dozen.

On sale per dozen 22-inch size, positively unmatchable below $2.75 a dozen. On sale per dozen.....

M'DONALD'S NUT SUNDAE

NOTHING BUT BUTTER Made by the new modern creamory where purity and cleanliness are first proper lens, but an inexperienced dealer in frames may ruin the merit of the lens by not properly fitting them. We test the eye, grind the lense and fit the frame and guarantee the work. 'Phone 65 for the correct time.

Faust Creamery Supply Co. Third South

STATE FAIR JUDGES AWARD HEWLETT BROS. CO. Seven First Prizes for Three Crown Products.

First prize for best display of Utah First prize for best display of Baking Powder.

First prize for best display of Spices. First prize for best display of Extracts, First prize for best quality Baking Pow-

First prize for best quality Spices. First prize for best quality Extracts.
Every down-to-date grocer sells THREE CROWN.
ASK FOR THEM.